GROUP HEALTH AND LIFE INSURANCE

The new group health and life insurance plan for state officers and employees is now in effect. You must enroll to be on the plan. If you have not enrolled and wish to be covered you should do so as soon as possible. Contact Bonnie Albiston at the Legislative Council, 449-3064 if you have questions.

WESTERN CONFERENCE CSG

Plans are nearly final for the Western Conference of the Council of State Governments. The theme of the conference to be held in Helena from September 22-26 is Energy in the West. A copy of the program is enclosed. By the time you receive this, the Five-State Conference will be well underway.

HOW TO OBTAIN A COPY OF THE LAWS

It appears that the complete 15-volume set of the Montana Code Annotated (1979) will not be available until December, 1979.

However, an updated version of any part of the code may be obtained from the Legislative Council for immediate use.

Anyone needing the latest version of specific parts of the code has several format choices from which to choose when ordering from the Council.

1. The requested code sections can be printed (typewritten) on computer paper at a nominal cost, usually $5.

2. The sections can be printed (typewritten) on good white paper. The requestor may specify the margins and general printing format desired. The basic cost of this type of copy is 10¢ a page. However, there is an additional service charge if there are multiple code sections that need to be selected at random, rather than entire chapters or titles.

3. The sections can be produced in camera-ready (typeset) copy for specific code Titles or combinations of code sections. This is the format used when there is a need for a large number of reproductions.

In addition, as individual volumes of the printed code are delivered to the Council offices (the printer estimates delivery of five per month), code subscribers may pick up the individual volumes as they are received. The Council will not automatically mail partial sets of the code, but will do so upon special request.

INTERIM COMMITTEES

CORRECTIONS POLICY COMMITTEE

The Study Committee on Corrections Policy and Facility Needs visited the prison facilities at Montana State Prison in Deer Lodge August 23. On August 24 the Committee received reports from the Department of Institutions concerning prison population projections and prison expansion alternatives. It was announced that the Department's original prison population projections were overstated. More recent population projections do not justify the prison expansion project funded by the 46th Legislature. The Department announced that it has dropped plans to construct the proposed Stillwater forest camp.

STILLWATER PROJECTS DROPPED

CORRECTIONS COMMITTEE TO FOCUS ON SENTENCING

The final report from the House Select Committee on Prisons was presented and focused mainly on the problems of health care at the prison.

The next meeting of the Committee will be October 11 and 12. The Committee will tour Mountain View School and receive a progress report from the Department of Institutions concerning tentative plans for facilities and programs to meet correctional needs. The bulk of the meeting will focus on the issues of sentencing in Montana. The Committee has invited representatives from the Montana Justice Project's Corrections Task Force and Courts Task Force to discuss sentencing recommendations. The Committee will discuss various sentencing alternatives including mandatory/uniform sentencing and presumptive sentencing.
